The purpose of this Scholarship is to expand and enrich the school's student community in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies by recognizing and supporting outstanding students from diverse cultural, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds. The Scholarship aims to help them to achieve goals in Information Technology.

To be eligible, an applicant must:

• Be an international applicant whose country of origin/citizenship is from Latin America, the Middle East or Asia Pacific,
• must have a full/unconditional offer of study and subsequently enrol at the University of Sydney for one of the following coursework programs for Semester Two 2016:
  - Master of Information Technology (MIT),
  - Master of Information Technology Management (MITM), or
  - MIT/MITM combined program,
• not have commenced their studies in one of the above named programs in the Faculty or have transferred into one of those programs from another postgraduate program,
• maintain their international student status for the full duration of the Scholarship, and
• not currently hold another primary scholarship from the University of Sydney.

Selection criteria

The Scholarship shall be awarded based on academic merit. Applicants must have achieved a distinction average or above in their undergraduate studies and their performance in Information Technology subjects will also be considered.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Education), or their nominee and a nominated academic from the School of Information Technologies.

The Scholarship is tenable for one year only subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a credit average (70%) or above each semester. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted.

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
