

Sources of Information about New Ventures

There are many sources of information about new ventures or start-up companies in Australia, but they tend to be produced on an industry sector, and often a State basis.

Hunting around with Google can produce a range of hits. Some examples are:

- <http://www.smartcompany.com.au/>
- NSW Department of State and Regional Development www.business.nsw.gov.au contains an industry directory by sector www.smallbiz.nsw.gov.au
- Australian Technology Showcase www.ats.business.gov.au
- ABC New Inventors site
